

The FCC should reverse its decision to rescind Line Sharing as it creates difficulties for CLECs and impairs the adoption of Broadband Service to many areas of the country.